

POLITICAL FIGHT IN SENATE OVER TAX REVISION BILL

Proposals to Reduce Taxes on Moderate Incomes Were Voted Down by Overwhelming Majorities—Republicans Are Circulating a "Round Robin" Pledging Signers to Remain Continuously at the Capitol or Within Call—A Resolution is to be Introduced Calling For Continuous 24 Hour Sessions of the Senate Until the Revenue Measure is Disposed of.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Three separate proposals carrying reductions in the taxes on individuals having moderate incomes were voted down today by the senate, by overwhelming majorities. Discussion of them led to a hot political fight, which was closed by a resolution, submitted by Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, in charge of the tax revision bill, that on Wednesday there would be submitted a resolution calling for continuous 24-hour sessions of the senate until the revenue measure finally was disposed of.

A "round robin" pledging signers to remain continuously at the capitol, or within call, beginning Wednesday, was signed by 28 republicans and Senator Feltz said he had no doubt that there would be 42 republican signers or a necessary majority to put the resolution through. The "round robin" was drawn by Senator Moses and circulated

Senator Penrose declared that by having a continuous session, senators who desired to discuss the "shortcomings" of the federal Reserve board, the "iniquities" of the Street, and other such subjects could do so between "four a. m. and daybreak" without "delaying action on the tax bill."

The first tax amendment defeated today was that by Senator Gerry, proposing that the normal tax rates be two per cent., on the first $5,000 of income; four per cent. on the second $5,000; six per cent. on the third $5,000 and eight per cent. on all over $15,000. The vote was 46 to 28, as follows:

For the amendment:
 Democrats—Aahurst, Broussard, Caraway, Culbertson, Gerry, Glass, Hadlin, Hitchcock, Jones, New Mexico; Kendrick, McKellar, Myers, Overman, Owen, Pittman, Pomerene, Ransdell, Reed, Sheppard, Simmons, Stanley, Under-

Watson, Georgia, and Williams—26.
 Republicans—Johnson, La Follette—

Captain Archibald had been depressed by his wife's death some months ago.

The vote on final passage of the bill was 199 to 117. The measure now goes to the senate for early consideration.

Except for one minor amendment as to phraseology, the bill stood up like a stone wall while several republicans and democrats were attempting to pull it down with amendments.

First to be defeated was a proposal by Representative Fear, a republican member of the ways and means committee, providing that foreign nations indebted to the United States be required to pay a rate of interest averaging five per cent. Later the amendment by Representative Collier, democratic member of the same committee, was defeated. Captain Archibald was born at Portland, Maine, 51 years ago.
